

Alexandre Prevost

Division President, Civil - Business Aviation

As Division President, Civil - Business Aviation since September 2023, Alexandre Prevost leads a team of over 1,500 employees supporting clients across the globe. In this position, he is responsible for steering the division's overall strategic direction, with a focus on bolstering customer centricity and delivering world-class experiences.

Prior to this appointment, Mr. Prevost held the position of Vice President, Business Aviation and Helicopter Aviation Training since August 2020. Under his leadership, his organization executed an expansion strategy that led to the launch of several new training centres.

Previously, Mr. Prevost spent over seven years in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, where he advanced through various senior positions within the company until he was appointed as Vice President, Commercial Aviation Training – Asia Pacific in March 2018. He played a critical role in the rapid expansion of CAE's training network in the Asia Pacific region and was instrumental in developing several long-term partnerships with airlines.

Mr. Prevost's journey with CAE began in 2008 as a Finance Analyst in the Structured Finance and Mergers and Acquisition department. He held several positions in this group and was involved in a series of growth initiatives supporting all segments of CAE.

Mr. Prevost is a Certified Professional Accountant and a Certified Financial Analyst, and he holds a Bachelor of Finance and a Master of Finance from Université de Sherbrooke, Québec, Canada.
